

Vetted International Acquires Raleigh Campus for Headquarters

November 15, 2013 - Raleigh, NC - Vetted International, Ltd. (www.vetted-intl.com) is moving their Global Headquarters to a new Campus in Raleigh, North Carolina. The Campus located at 6870 & 6880 Perry Creek Road contains two buildings totaling 43,000 square feet and 11 acres along the Neuse River and adjacent the City of Raleigh Greenway. The facility is accessible by I-540's Louisburg Road exit. It neighbors Wake Tech Community College's North Campus and is centered between Raleigh Durham International and Triangle North Executive airports.

Vetted was founded in 2005 in Raleigh and originally set up its offices on Wake Forest Road and later on Benson Drive at One Renaissance Center. It has maintained satellite offices in Peru, South Africa, United Kingdom, and Turkey. Vetted's fortunate growth necessitated a larger facility to create a more sustainable central location for its leadership, operations, information technology, finance, marketing and customer service functions. The campus provides amenities to its employees aimed at fostering innovation, teambuilding, and training. The property offers advanced security, surveillance, environmental controls and builds on Vetted's advanced technology.

"The impetus for making this move was to further a sustainable company that has the ability to expand while remaining in a permanent location. We are imbedding roots in Raleigh and highlighting our global brand among other international companies in the area. The triangle region is known for innovation and we aim to attract world class personnel to join our ranks," said Brian Sjostedt, Vetted International's President & CEO.

Vetted acquired the new campus in September. The larger campus can accommodate future growth and jobs in the Research Triangle Area.

The Research Triangle Region (Raleigh, Durham and Chapel Hill) is home to 170 global companies and fosters a culture of innovation, scientific advancement, health research, and competitive excellence. The area is also home to three major universities; Duke University, University of North Carolina, and North Carolina State University. The Brookings Institute ranked Raleigh as one of the most educated cities in America, Forbes ranked Raleigh as the second fastest growing cities in America, and the Dice report ranked Raleigh as the fastest growing city for technology jobs. Forbes ranked Raleigh as the best city for business and careers in America and Business Week ranked Raleigh as America's best city. The region is known internationally and domestically as a success story, as the region has been able to successfully attract skilled professionals, conduct world-class research, attract global and national companies, and successfully foster entrepreneurship. Vetted permanently selected Raleigh for its headquarters to attract world-class talent to serve its global clients.
